

BOOK LIMIT POLICY:

The John C. Hart Memorial Library does not limit the number books on the same topic from the children's room. However, the adult room limits the number of books on a specific topic to three.

The purpose of this limitation is to allow the largest number of library patrons to have access the book collection as much as possible.