

Library Policy-Tutoring

At a meeting held on February 28, 2001, the Library Board of Trustees evaluated whether the use of the Library as a site to conduct tutoring is consistent with Library policy.

The Board determined that the use of the Library premises for tutoring that is not conducted by Library personnel is inconsistent with Library policy. Therefore, as of April 15th, 2001, you may no longer conduct tutorials on Library premises.
